BORIS BLASTED OVER AIR STATS

BORIS Johnson's strategy on clean air has been slammed after a report indicated that new taxis are polluting the air more than older models.

'Remote sensing of NO2 exhaust emissions from road vehicles', produced by the Environmental research group at Kings College London, and funded by Defra, claims that new taxis produce more than twice the amount of deadly fumes that old cabs do.

Mr Johnson refused to license any taxis over 15 years old in 2012 – forcing cab drivers to pay up to £40,000 for new vehicles.

But the Kings report reads: "There is a clear indication that absolute levels of NO2 emissions from taxis manufactured since around 2008 have been increasing. This is true for the LTI TX4, and the Mercedes Vito models.

"Given the intensity of taxi operations in the centre of London, the increase in levels of NO2 emissions from the newer taxi fleet is a matter of concern for local air quality management in general, and NO2 limit values in particular."

Environmental campaigner David Davis has been campaigning since 2008 for improvements to air quality in London.

He said: "I'm extremely relieved that a reliable entity like Defra has admitted that the Mayor's strategy on clean air has failed.

"I feel outraged that this has been allowed to continue because thousands of people are dying." Commenting on the report's findings, its author David Carslaw stressed that the benefits of old and new taxis was complex and location dependent, but he added: "In one sense the newer taxis are worse than the older ones – for NO2, even when taking account of the fact they emit half the total NOx."

Mr Johnson is responsible for introducing measures to tackle London's poor air quality, which has been linked to the death of more than 4,000 Londoners.

The Mayor's office was unavailable for comment at the time of going to press. Client Earth won its appeal to the Supreme Court over air pollution, earlier this month.

The judgement declared that the Government is in breach of article 13 of the EU Air Quality Directive.

Concern: Eastbury Primary School

By Pat Jones

barking@yellowad.co.uk

PARENTS at a troubled school have been warned not to speak out by Barking and Dagenham Council.

They complained to the council - the local education authority - about alleged bullying and poor leadership at Eastbury Primary School - but instead of help they received threatening letters.

An Ofsted inspection last September, which found the school 'requires improvements' in all sections, did nothing to calm parents' ears.

The council's director of children's services wrote: "I must remind parents and carers that making allegations that lack evidence about a person could amount to defamation ... and may result in legal proceedings."

Parents have been campaigning for improvements at the Dawson Avenue school for months but the council has taken limited action.

Ofsted inspectors visited in January and criticised standards. Another inspection earlier this month raised further concerns.

DfE spokesman said: "This is a school which has had a number of serious issues for some time.

Development topped out

APPRENTICE Leigh-Anne Smith (pictured) laid the ceremonial brick to top out a development of 227 homes.

She is one of ten local apprentices working on Barking's Thames View East site, which will provide 'affordable' homes for borough residents.

The apprentices all come from Barking and Dagenham, placed with builder Jerram Falkus through the council's construction job shop service, along with other workers on site.

'Dysfunctional' school governors criticised

AN OFSTED inspector has condemned the 'dysfunctional nature' of governors at the troubled Eastbury Primary School.

The Dawson Avenue school is subject to regular visits because it was rated 'requires improvement' in every category after an inspection last September.

On her second monitoring visit on May 2 inspector Mary Massey reported the governors, who had met only once in 18 months, were not capable of taking a corporate or strategic view, did not support the acting head to make improvements to the school and were not meeting their statutory responsibilities.

She echoed the words of an independent review after the September inspection that the body had a 'dysfunctional nature.'

Mrs Massey added: "At the time of the first monitoring visit in January it was expected the governors would be replaced by an interim executive board by February 1 - but three months on it is still the responsible authority for the school.

"Its members, although perhaps individually well intentioned lack a proper understanding of the corporate nature of good governance.

The report added: "Governors did not understand good governance and are unable to take a corporate or strategic view of the school.

"Results for 11-year-olds are below both the national average and the local authority average. We are investigating allegations about the leadership, management and governance of the school."

The Department for education was contacted by concerned parents.

Mr Gove wrote to the council putting forward his view on an interim new board on May 16.

A DfE spokesman said: "This is a school which has had a number of serious issues for some time. We are investigating allegations about the leadership, management and governance of the school."

A spokesman for Barking and Dagenham Council said the authority had issued a warning notice to the school governing body in January, following concerns raised by OFSTED and receipt of a commissioned review of governance.

A recommendation was then made to the Secretary of State to establish an interim board in February, but the Secretary of State's final decision on this is still awaited.

He added "Additional governors are helping to ensure that the 'dysfunctional nature' of the Governing Body is addressed."

BUSINESS minded youngsters are working on plans to make money for a local hospice.

Teams of secondary schools students will each get £250 start-up cash and six months to run their own businesses and increase that as much as possible – with all profits going to St Francis Hospice.

Eighteen schools are taking part in the scheme, in its second year, more than double the seven who entered last year.

Barry Hearn CEO of Matchroom Sport Brentwood is putting up the cash for the MATCH challenge, which last year brought in £7,000 for the Havering-atte-Bower hospice.

The teams raised that money by designing and selling games apps for smart phones, car washing, making and selling cup cakes T-shirts and fashion accessories. Students from Sacred Heart of Mary Girls School, Upminster came out on top, while Barking Abbey School – which got a special mention for stepping in at the last minute – gave them a run for their money.

Barry, who lives in Dagenham, has been a St Francis supporter since his mother-in-law was cared for by the charity.

"I've had so much enjoyment going round the school during last year's challenge. I've probably learned as much from the kids as they have from me," Barry said.

The winning team members will get an iPad3 each and an offer of work experience at Matchroom or St Francis.

Barclays Bank is involved again with some matched funding and providing business mentors to children.

The session will be open between 11am and 3pm at Higham Hill Hut Higham Hill Recreation Ground, Hecham Close, E17 5QT.

Time to party

RESIDENTS get a chance to party at four Big Weekenders - festivals of music, song and dance across the borough, following last year's successful Big6 and Olympic events.

Walthamstow's Chestnuts Fields in Forest Road, hosts the first on Saturday June 15 from 5.30pm until 9.30pm and the next day from 1pm until 7pm.

Woofs and Wellies event raises hospice cash

HOUNDS raised pounds for a local hospice.

More than 300 walkers stepped out with 200 pooches on the fourth woofs and wellies event in Hainault Forest last Sunday.

The popular dog walk netted more than £12,000 to go towards specialist care services Saint Francis Hospice, at Havering-atte-Bower, which cares for local people affected by cancer or other life-limiting illnesses.

Tracy Shepherd and daughter Lena with Airedale Terrier Ted from Hornchurch, were among the walkers.

Tracy said: "My mother-in-law received care from Saint Francis Hospice and we appreciated the kindness and support of the staff and volunteers."

Highlights of the day included a demonstration from the Essex-based Dog Training Centre of Excellence Team which had dogs jumping through fire and showing their agility and obedience skills. Brentwood-based dog whisperer Glen Stanford also shared some tips about behaviour and worked with some of the walkers and their dogs.

Event organiser Lauren Josman, said: "Public support means so much to Saint Francis Hospice and the thousands of patients and relatives who need our care each year."

Sufferers and their families from Redbridge, Barking and Dagenham, Havering and Brentwood are cared for at the hospice.

Saint Francis Hospice has a range of walks, thrill-seeking challenges, quiz nights and other events planned this year and to find out more or other ways to support the charity please visit www.sfh.org.uk email fundraising@sfh.org.uk or call 01708 771427.

Clampdown on betting shops

TOUR: Valentines Mansion

Step back into history

A TOUR of Valentines Mansion and Gardens in Ilford is open to all visually impaired people.

It is organised by Redbridge Vision and is its first event this year. The mansion is more than 300 years old and was built in 1696 for Elizabeth Tillotson after the death of her husband, the Archbishop of Canterbury.

It has been restored recently after standing empty for 15 years.

The tour will also take in the historic kitchen garden as well as the English walled and Victorian rose gardens. Anyone wanting to join the free tour should meet at the Gardener's Cottage at 11am next Tuesday (May 28) to start the tour at 11.15am.

BARKING Council is out to even the odds against the spread of betting shops throughout the borough.

It aims to put a stop to their gallop and is to ask residents for their views on its plans.

Barking and Dagenham Council cabinet has agreed to consult members of the public on a draft Government planning policy, 'Evening the Odds' which would curb the proliferation of betting offices, which currently stands at 41.

Neighbouring boroughs are taking similar action.

Under the current planning law, high street premises can be converted to betting shops without permission, including cafes, restaurants, hot food takeaways and drinking establishments.

The new policy will include a 400m exclusion zone around existing betting offices to stop them clustering.

Cameron Geddes, council cabinet member for regeneration, said: "This has been a concern for us for many years and we have been trying to tackle it head-on. We consider that it is in the interests of our residents and the vitality and viability of our town centres that this spread needs to be carefully controlled.

"Research has shown that the number of betting offices in an area restricts retail choices available to local communities, and can also have a damaging effect on people's health and finances.

"We are committed to improve the diversity and vitality of our high streets, bring in new and attractive businesses which create employment for local people and most importantly; tackle the health, social and crime fallouts which can be related to problem gambling."

The consultation began on May 15 and is open until June 26, when a report will go to the London Assembly.

Mayor welcomes new citizen to the borough

BORIS Johnson, mayor of London welcomed Baking and Dagenham's newest British citizen at a special ceremony at City Hall on Tuesday when Indian Bahadar Singh Binning was among 38 who received certificates and commemoration gifts.

The mayor said: "Immigration has always played a crucial role in London's cultural vitality and economic success. This annual ceremony is about encouraging citizens to get fully involved in their local communities and contribute to the future of their new city. Many congratulations to all 38 new citizens and their families."

The ceremony was administered by Head of Registration

Retired greyhounds face uncertain future

FUND US A HOME: Julie Colney, Derek Temple, Dorothy Hughes and Ray Norman

SCORES of retired greyhounds could soon be homeless.

Hundreds of the former stars of the track are taken into kennels in North Ockendon each year by volunteers.

At any one time the kennels in Ockendon Road will have up to 50 dogs, but owner Lynn Jeffries has decided to sell.

Lynn said: "The greyhounds are such fabulous creatures, they are really cuddly as pets and I would urge anyone considering a pet, to adopt one."

Volunteer Julie Colney said she was worried for the dogs' futures as there is only one month left at the site where they have been for the eight years.

Julie started looking after retired greyhounds back in 1977 as her father used to race greyhounds at the Romford dog track.

Julie said they urgently need a piece of land to build kennels or a piece of land either with or without old or new kennels to house the dogs.

She said: "We don't mind building new kennels or doing some existing kennels up.

"Some dogs stay with us for a few years while others are rehoused very quickly, we don't put the dogs down if they are well.

"We have volunteers come and help out from Basildon, Romford and Dagenham – so ideally we would need somewhere in any one of those places."

Man to be sentenced for hitting girlfriend with an extension lead

A FATHER who hit his girlfriend with an extension lead following an argument will be sentenced.

Frabrice Kasongo, of Highstone Avenue, Leytonstone, pleaded guilty to assault by beating at Thames Magistrates Court on Wednesday.

The court heard how the 24-year-old had rowed with the mother-of his child, Sarah Mukengeshayi, about a text message after returning late to her home in Brook Court, Leytonstone.

Kasongo, who wore a Burberry jacket to court, left the house following the disagreement on Sunday, April 7, but returned an hour later.

He then punched her in the face and hit her with the lead, causing blisters to the back.

Kasongo's girlfriend then asked her sister to call the police.

Magistrate DJ Goodwin was told he had previously been cautioned on March 28 for hitting his partner and was also avoided prosecution for hitting a security guard in February.

Kasongo will be sentenced at the same court on Thursday, June 13.

Director jailed for fiddling the books

A MANAGING director who cooked the books to avoid paying between £300,000 and £500,000 VAT has been jailed.

Kemal Gediz, who lives in Walthamstow, deliberately under declared sales in his clothing chain, failed to pay VAT in full and pocketed £68,000 in tax and national insurance contributions from his employees.

The 49-year-old who ran Punkyfish (GB) Ltd, was sentenced to 18 months in prison at Canterbury Crown Court on Friday, May 17.

The court heard Gediz, who lives at Latchingdon Court, Forest Road, submitted a VAT return for Aliko Ltd, trading as Punkyfish, in May 2011.

The return showed sales of £1.2 million for the 18 month period starting in November 2009.

HMRC subsequently made a visit to Gediz and discovered paperwork showing that sales were in fact £7.3 million, some £6 million more than he had declared.

Gediz's lies had resulted in a VAT underpayment of a sum estimated at between £300,000 and £500,000, but further checks revealed that Gediz had also failed to file any tax forms or pay the Pay As You Earn (PAYE) and National Insurance contributions he had deducted from the salaries of approximately 70 staff. These contributions totalled around £67,600.

David Margree, Assistant Director, Criminal Investigation, at HMRC said: "Gediz's idea of getting ahead in business was to falsify his accounts and steal from his own employees. In doing so he deceived not only HMRC and his staff, but also the thousands of businesses that operate honestly and within the law."

"HMRC will thoroughly investigate suspected tax fraud, and bring enforcement action against those who cheat the system," he added.

Gediz pleaded guilty to the offences on April 9.

Punkyfish operates in around 12 locations, mainly in London and the South East, including Lakeside at West Thurrock.

Directors disqualified for six years

A COUPLE who ran a children's playgroup but failed to keep proper trading record for almost two years, have been disqualified as directors for six years.

Stuart Charles Pryde and Lisa Edwina Pryde, directors of The Firehouse Play Centres Limited, in Waltham Abbey, were disqualified following an investigation by the Insolvency Service.

The company went into liquidation on May 4 2011 owing £342,912 to creditors.

The last annual accounts it filed were for the year ending August 31 2009, then Mr and Mrs Pryde failed to keep any proper records to account for the company's trading from September 1 2009 to liquidation, two years later.

This meant the liquidator was unable to verify the company's expenses for this period, which were almost £300,000, or the company's assets, which were valued in the last accounts at £130,655.

It has not been possible for the liquidator to recover these funds to repay the company's creditors.

Mark Bruce, a Chief Examiner at The Insolvency Service said: "The maintenance of a company's financial records is a vital responsibility for a director, especially when that company is experiencing difficulties."

"This investigation uncovered very significant assets that could not be explained adequately to the liquidator which prevented him from doing his job properly for the creditors."

Man who bit police officer spared jail

A LITHUANIAN man who bit a female police officer before assaulting a paramedic and her male colleague has escaped a prison sentence.

Zygmantas Lekavicius, of Lake House Road, Leytonstone, pleaded guilty to common assault and two counts of obstructing police in the execution of their duty at Thames Magistrates Court on Wednesday.

The 38-year-old was found by medics rolling around half naked beside a bottle of tequila on April 1.

Medics discovered the Lekavicius, who needed an interpreter in court, shouting and swearing outside a property in Harrow Road, also in Leytonstone.

He then punched the paramedic and male police officer, named Pc Cooper, before biting Pc Labadie, tearing her skin.

Lekavicius will be sentenced on May 28 to allow for further reports on his welfare.

Family continues to ensure business is a cut above the rest

WHILE two brothers returning from the Second World War may have marked the beginning of an unrivalled garden machinery business in Walthamstow, it is actually five generations of one family that have all been behind its success.

Robert and Norman Earthy returned from the war and began selling and repairing lawnmowers, building on the already well established A Pamphilon & Sons, founded in 1875 by Allen Pamphilon who sold household goods such as pots and pans, as well as fuel.

In 1900 he moved the business to a purpose built shop in Wood Street, Walthamstow, where his daughter Florence fell in love and then married the shopkeeper and ironmonger next door, Spencer Earthy. The businesses merged into one of the most well known hardware stores in East London, and their sons, Robert and Norman, added to the business trading in lawnmowers.

Robert slowly handed the store over to his son, also called Robert, who introduced a range of additions including Bottled Gas in the late 70s.

Now the firm, which abbreviated its name to APS Ltd, is run by the fifth generation of the family and is one of the largest independent bottled gas distributors in the South of England as well as the largest lawnmower service centre in London.

The company, which has worked tirelessly to gain a reputation for reliability and good quality craftsmanship, can still be found in Wood Street and specialises in the service, sale and repair of agricultural, garden and construction machinery, and supplies chemical weed killers.

All of their fitters are highly skilled in all aspects of diesel, four stroke and two stroke engines, as well as in machinery electrical work, and the company has a fleet of five vehicles which can collect larger machinery from the road.

Their motivated sales team are dedicated to supplying customers with the right tools at the most competitive prices and can arrange on-site demonstrations, while the company as a whole prides itself on understanding the importance of a quick and efficient service.

Alongside this APS are also certificated to train individuals in the use of grounds care equipment through which your staff can gain a certificate of 'competence'.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Consumer Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even when shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Reproduction cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions part be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
14. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
15. Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
16. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
17. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
18. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
19. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
20. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
21. Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payment of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
22. Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
23. Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
24. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
25. Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

SOCCER IN GOOD SHAPE AT GRASSROOTS LEVEL

Football

Essex County FA Chief Executive Phil Sammons has claimed that local football is "in a much better place than many would perceive" during his address which forms part of the Association's latest Annual Report document, which marks the start of the yearly club and league affiliation process for 2013/14.

Former Grays Athletic and Hornchurch player Sammons, who heads up a 22-strong team at the County Office, also points towards a 'report full of very positive figures, achievements and developments' as staff prepare to process affiliations over the summer.

With the introduction of personal accident insurance for grassroots players coming up, as well as facets of the Youth Development Review, Phil has reflected with optimism for the future.

"This report is full of very positive figures, achievements and developments which show football in a much better place than many would perceive," he stated in the report, which is available online at www.essexfa.com.

"I guess, like everything in life, you have to draw your conclusions from your own personal experiences. The game continually evolves and, to this end, I highlight three key developments which have taken place during the past year."

"The first is the new formats of youth football which will see 5, 7, 9 and 11-a-side football being played and the non-competitive aspect being extended from under 7s and 8s through to under 9s for season 2013/14. It will be through to under 11s by 2015/16. This will bring initial challenges in terms of facilities, interpretation of 'non-competitive' and the general acceptance of this developing the skill levels of our young players."

"The second is our involvement in the repeated substitutions pilot for adult football. This allows for five substitutes to be named, all of whom may be used, and a substituted player can return to the field of a play as a substitute. The third is the acceptance of 3G pitches for competition matches. Due to the terrible weather at the back end of the year they became the only pitches fit for play, and clubs were happy to play on them. Perhaps the future is 3G?"

The club and league affiliation process in Essex takes place between May and July each year, and existing member clubs have until Monday 1st July to ensure their forms are returned in time for the forthcoming 2013/14 season.

This is also the deadline for entries into one of the various County Cups, and to avoid a late affiliation fee.

New clubs will receive their packs by the end of May, but prospective new clubs are still invited to contact the County Office to register their details.

Three or four alternative names should be prepared in advance in case the first choice is not available.

There is no deadline for new clubs to affiliate, though each league sets their own final date for membership approaches.

For 2013/14, clubs need to have 'Personal Accident' and 'Legal (Public) Liability' insurance before their affiliation can be completed. The Essex County FA have pledged to cover the costs of each club's Public Liability Cover at Step Seven of the National League System and below, worth £18 per club, as well as agreeing to pay £15 toward Bluefin Personal Accident cover on behalf of all of the member clubs who require it.

Existing clubs had their re-affiliation forms posted to them this week, including an admission slip for the Annual General Meeting at the Essex Record Office in Chelmsford on Thursday June 6 at 7:30pm for the transaction of the ordinary and special business of the company. Attendance at this meeting is not compulsory for members.

Details on club and league affiliations, starting a new club and insurance can be found at www.essexfa.com under 'Clubs/Affiliation'. This is also the place to find digital copy of the Annual Report. If you have any questions, contact the Governance Team on (01245) 393080/2/3/4/96 or E-Mail info@essexfa.com. Details are also shared on Twitter (@EssexCountyFA) and Facebook (EssexFootball)

Girls Football

Girls' centre of Excellence

The Essex County FA can continue to positively develop the female game following news that they've been awarded an exclusive FA Girls Centre of Excellence (CofE) Licence for the 2013/14 season, enabling the Association to operate as one of only 31 such centres in the whole of England.

Nearly 80 players aged between seven and 17 will be accommodated within the playing programme, which involves four hours of training a week and weekly fixtures against the likes of Chelsea, Arsenal, Middlesex, and Brighton.

There are also opportunities for exceptional talent to be recognised as 22 games are observed by FA national scouts, with elite players progressing through to Regional Elite Performance Camps and England training camps.

Chief Executive, Phil Sammons, commented: "We are delighted to have been appointed as one of the Centres of Excellence and it's great news that we're able to continue the excellent work Colchester United's Community Sports Trust got off the ground."

Essex will challenge the skills and development of their players against other South-East Centres, and The FA's aim for each centre is: "to allow players opportunities to access appropriate levels of coaching and support throughout the talent pathway, enabling the programme to reach our ultimate goal in producing elite English female players to compete on the world stage."

Player trials will be held at Shrub End Sports & Community Centre in Colchester on the following dates: Friday June 14 - 5:00-9:00pm; Sunday June 23 - 9:00-5:00pm (invitational). Age group specific information will be published on www.essexfa.com very soon, with registration details to take part in the trial process.

Karate

Phoenix flying

Congratulations go to the Phoenix Karate Squad who have been very successful over the last two competitions.

Phoenix Karate Club has two Dojo's one in the Basildon Sporting Village and the other at Phoenix Dojo Northwick Road, Chaffleets on Canvey. In the last two competitions the majority of the competitors came from Canvey Island.

Melissa King, 12, who only recently started karate at Phoenix has come on so well she is now training with much older people due to her ability. Mel came second in her category in Kata.

Lee Dolby started training after his daughter Chelsy started karate at Phoenix and he got bored watching. Lee has won both competitions he has entered in Kata so far. Chelsy also achieved a credited third in her Kata category.

Finally seven year-old Fletcher Moore entered his first proper competition and came away with the gold medal.

Speedway

Rocket Mear

The Rye House Rockets have agreed a temporary loan deal with the Vortex Lakeside Hammers for Robert Mear to return to their club as an injury replacement Jason Garrity.

Mear is currently recovering from a motocross accident but is scheduled to make his Rye House debut in their Sunday's home League Cup fixture against Plymouth.

Second not too shabby for Woodford

Athletics

The second Southern Athletic League fixture of the summer took place at Ashton on Saturday.

As a home fixture Woodford had to make up ground in the table as it was in 17th place, but as the club had the third and fourth placed teams visiting, and an interim manager, it was never going to be an easy task.

Woodford finished second, behind Ealing, Southall and Middlesex AC.

The ladies' side was built around top-draw multi-eventers, top specialists and excellent club athletes who put aside personal feelings to get the team points.

Nusrat Ceesay started at noon in the long jump, the first of five events she would do. They were handily spaced one hour apart and done in preparation for a heptathlon in the not too distant future.

With two firsts and two seconds off limited training in some disciplines, it bodes well for the future.

Katie Skelding showed her class by winning the 100m and 200m, and in the 200m beating Jo Ryan, running for Loughton with a 24.99.

Sade Brown, an U17, showed good quality in the 100m and showed great spirit in the 400m, although the race was probably 100m further than she wanted! Hollie Redman once again did a fantastic job for the team by winning the shot then the discus.

Mention must go to pole vaulters Monica Griffith (U17) and Stephanie Smith (U20) who, although revising for exams, took time out and secured the team a second and first with 2.10m and 2.00m respectively. Claire Leckie was a late recruit to the team but, with a personal points haul of 11 points, justified the manager's wish for her to compete, as although recovering from a foot injury, she not only helped fill gaps but did all her events to a good standard, even though all were very removed from her marathon training.

Ayamba Akim showed her class again by winning the high jump. The middle distance events were filled by Alex Wardle and Jenny Thomas after illness had taken out the other middle distance runners.

After running the 800m, 1500m and 3000m the last thing Alex Wardle probably needed was to do the 4 x 100m relay.

On the Men's side it was wrecking ball performance with 25 wins out of a possible 36. After just making it to the venue after getting stuck in traffic Chris Linque, supported by Hugh Williams, won the shot, and then both repeated the performances later in the discus.

Peter Clarke picked himself up and dusted himself off after his hammer handle snapped in a practice throw to win the event.

On the track Jason Greenidge, Edward Yamah, and Paul Scanlan took charge of the sprints with U17 Luke Speller coming in last minute when Yamah had to pull out through injury.

Luke was also part of the victorious 4 x 100m team, with Ally Strange, Paul and Jason, later on in the day. Bertie Powell showed his class by front-running a sub 9min 3k.

Harold Wyber took the field apart in the steeplechase, getting full points for the team. On the day Woodford had 35 victories out of a possible total of 72, far beyond what manager Ed Messer could have expected.

Teams line up for Youth Games

The first Barking & Dagenham teams have been confirmed for this year's Balfour Beatty London Youth Games.

The participation of the borough's youngsters in Europe's largest annual youth sports event was put in serious jeopardy after Barking & Dagenham Council refused to fund teams to this year's Games. The move isolated them as the only London borough not to support the London Youth Games.

The council had also blocked attempts by local clubs to independently enter any of the 33 sports in the London Youth Games.

But following a special meeting held at Barking Learning Centre on May 2, a volunteer steering group in the borough was formed and the board of the London Youth Games Foundation agreed to accept entries without the council's approval.

Since then, entries have been confirmed in kayak sprint, kayak slalom, BMX, boys' and girls' hockey, rowing and disability swimming. Kayaking is traditionally very strong in Barking & Dagenham, but the borough has not entered BMX and or hockey teams in any of the last four years.

Further entries are anticipated for qualifying and finals events which will take place in May, June and July.

Russell Findlay, Chief Executive, London Youth Games Foundation said: "Many have shared their concerns that young people in Barking and Dagenham would miss out on the London Youth Games this year."

"Following some amazing stories from young people, I am really pleased to say that this won't be the case."
